Mary Ann Rogers Range - Linen

Award winning Scottish artist, Mary Ann Rogers, creates vibrant water colour paintings of woodland creatures and British country wildlife. In collaboration with the Voyage Maison design team Mary Ann has created a collection of unique cushions to be valued and treasured for life.

Animal Patchwork - Velvet

Voyage Maison was established in Glasgow Scotland in 1998 and have built a reputation worldwide for innovative and stylish designs. Their in-house design studio is renowned for creating imaginative designs, each one hand drawn and painted.

They major in watercolour painting, a style which allows them to express themselves in a truly unique way. An in-house state of the art printing facility allows them to capture every detail and lively hue by retaining the quality of the original paintings then print them on locally woven Scottish linen and sumptuous velvet.

Foxford Throws

Foxford Woollen Mills was established by the Sisters of Charity in 1892 to improve the economic situation in County Mayo Ireland during the time of the potato famine. Foxford still reflects the old values and traditional methods together with today's technology to produce a contemporary range of wool throws in various designs and hues.

The range includes Pure Lambswool, Mohair Wool, Cashmere Wool and soft Lambswool baby throws with fringed edges. These are the perfect accessory to add warmth and textural interest to any home.
